

Printer-friendly PDF

Trade receivables

Banca IFIS

During 2012 Banca IFIS increased by 20% the number of small and medium sized enterprises in its portfolio, by 10% the number of large enterprises. The Bank's intervention is based on a key and constant element, which is the transfer of trade receivables from

For the company-customer, therefore, the dialogue with Banca IFIS becomes not only a financial issue, noneth... Therefore, intervention by Banca IFIS is not only a question of trade finance. Alongside the purely monetary su... Banca IFIS has a widespread presence throughout Italy, with 28 branches employing over 150 professional sta... In order to develop select relations with the customers, the Bank maintains local contacts with some qualified in... Knowledge of the local area and customers, together with the business model based on factoring mitigating the

Banca IFIS International

Banca IFIS is one of the most active players in international factoring and stands out from the competition due to... Banca IFIS's strength lies in its ability to act not only as a supplier of factoring services but also as a consultant... Export Factoring is the product dedicated to Italian export companies and includes both recourse and non-recou... Import Factoring is the service offered to foreign companies exporting to Italy. Also in the case of import, servic... In the business segment of non-domestic operations two foreign counterparts are involved: the invoice seller and

Banca IFIS Pharma

In 2010 Banca IFIS started a new line of business dedicated to creating new integrated management solutions
